A revolutionary memoir about domestic abuse by the award-winning author of Her Body and Other Parties In the Dream House is Carmen Maria Machado's engrossing and wildly innovative account of a relationship gone bad, and a bold dissection of the mechanisms and cultural representations of psychological abuse. Tracing the full arc of a harrowing relationship with a charismatic but volatile woman, Machado struggles to make sense of how what happened to her shaped the person she was becoming. And it's that struggle that gives the book its original structure: each chapter is driven by its own narrative trope—the haunted house, erotica, the bildungsroman—through which Machado holds the events up to the light and examines them from different angles. She looks back at her religious adolescence, unpacks the stereotype of lesbian relationships as safe and utopian, and widens the view with essayistic explorations of the history and reality of abuse in queer relationships. Machado's dire narrative is leavened with her characteristic wit, playfulness, and openness to inquiry. She casts a critical eye over legal proceedings, fairy tales, Star Trek, and Disney villains, as well as iconic works of film and fiction. The result is a wrenching, riveting book that explodes our ideas about what a memoir can do and be.

A leading health and wellness expert, author Diana Le Dean is a specialist in weight loss counseling who has worked with private clients around the world, including many models and celebrities. She also founded Counseling on the Move, an innovative weight loss program that integrated traditional counseling and power walking on the treadmill. She is a former professional roller skater and a consultant for the World Champion Team in Melbourne. Qualified as a master trainer and counselor of nutrition and sports performance, Le Dean also is a keen student of psychology and has obtained a master's qualifications in neurolinguistic programming. She is currently working on her second book, Italy Lite in collaboration with Dr. Lapsys and Italian food critic, Marco Lombardi. The book presents lighter, healthier variations of traditional Italian recipes, as created by twenty of Italy's most respected chefs. Diets work. Really. There are dozens of legitimate formulas for losing weight. But which can end a toxic relationship with food, and supplant complicated, painful and unhealthy eating habits? Sadly, very few weight loss methods embrace the premise that we must change our minds before our waistlines. They don't recognize that terminating an abusive relationship food and weight is as difficult as ending a hurtful marriage. But this truth is the root of Diana Le Dean's road map for weight loss. And now she has written down the method that has worked for hundreds of her clients across the globe. Yes You Can: The Achievable Diet is a synthesis of many successes, and can lead all readers to their own weight loss success. Le Dean provides an indispensable list of healthy food choices. She requires the reader to savor their favorite foods once each week without guilt or feelings of failure. She provides the insights and actionable steps that will help break sugar addiction, gently turn away diet saboteurs and at last overcome personal demons responsible for endless weight fluctuations. As the reader absorbs key insights about food, Le Dean simultaneously provides gentle but direct reminders that exercise is indispensable to weight loss success. She encourages each individual to commit to the form of exercise they most enjoy while making small, but vital steps to incorporate more movement into every day. Her book fosters a positive mindset and provides the emotional support that will turn a futile chore into an incredible, wonderful journey that concludes with a slim body and well-deserved happiness. In a revitalized frame of mind, readers won't get lost in a torrent of rules, calorie counts and measurements. The Le Dean process of losing weight isn't complicated, unless a reader chooses to make it complicated. Yes, You Can is the product of exhaustive research and Le Dean's collaboration with experts in nutrition, fitness and psychology. It synthesizes the wisdom, hard lessons and insights of hundreds of her successful weight loss clients, as well as the secrets of those who stay slim simply by doing what they love. The diet she has constructed is healthy, delicious and sustainable. It includes a plan that adjusts your eating patterns, incorporates movement into your daily life and rewrites old, negative storylines that perpetuate the myth of the hapless diet victim. Le Dean is determined that every reader can emerge as the ultimate diet decision maker. All people can succeed if they have steps to follow, celebrate every accomplishment and build confidence with one small change at a time. This is the Le Dean method, and it's the essence of Yes You Can: The Achievable Diet.

If middle school were a race, Joseph Friedman wouldn't even be in last place—he'd be on the sidelines. With an overactive mind and phobias of everything from hard-boiled eggs to gargoyles, he struggles to understand his classes, let alone his fellow classmates. So he spends most of his time avoiding school bully Charlie Kastner and hiding out in the Resource Room, a safe place for misfit kids like him. But then, on the first day of seventh grade, two important things happen. First, his Resource Room teacher encourages (i.e., practically forces) him to join the school track team, and second, he meets Heather, a crazy-fast runner who isn't going to be pushed around by Charlie Kastner or anybody else. With a new friend and a new team, Joseph finds himself off the sidelines and in the race (quite literally) for the first time. Is he a good runner? Well, no, he's terrible. But the funny thing about running is, once you're in the race, anything can happen.

"On September 2, 2013, at the age of 64, Diana Nyad emerged onto the shores of Key West after completing a 110 mile, 53 hour, record-breaking swim through shark-infested waters from Cuba to Florida. Her memoir shows why, at 64 she was able to achieve what she couldn't at 30 and how her repeated failures contributed to her success."--

It's the most wonderful time of the year...for rugged ranchers to fall in love! Diana Palmer spins two fan-favorite tales of love, joy and happily-ever-after under the mistletoe. Winter Roses—Handsome rancher Stuart York was never one to mince words. Ivy Conley, his younger sister's best friend, found that out the hard way. During a night's stay at his Jacobsville ranch, Ivy wound up in Stuart's arms. Knowing she was too young for him, Stuart closed his heart to her. Now, years later, Ivy is determined to be treated like a grown woman. But can she tame the one man determined to avoid her embrace? Cattleman's Choice—Carson Wayne has come to Mandelyn Bush with the ultimate request: he needs her to teach him how to treat a lady. There's no doubt he asked the right person. Beautiful Mandelyn is as polished and feminine as Carson is rough and reclusive. It's too intriguing a challenge for Mandelyn to turn down. She's always been curious about what lies beneath the outlaw's hard shell. But what she didn't count on were her own feelings for the irresistible rebel.

She is catapulted without warning into the intrigues of lairds and spies that may threaten her life ...and shatter her heart. A blueprint for how parents can stop worrying about their children's future and start helping them prepare for it, from the cofounder and CEO of one of America's most innovative public-school networks "A treasure trove of deeply practical wisdom that accords with everything I know about how children thrive."--Angela Duckworth, New York Times bestselling author of Grit In 2003, Diane Tavenner cofounded the first school in what would become Summit Public Schools, which has since won national recognition for its exceptional outcomes: 99 percent of students are accepted to a four-year college, and its students graduate college at twice the national average. But in a radical departure from the environments created by the college admissions arms race, Summit students aren't focused on competing with their classmates for rankings or test scores. Instead, students spend their days solving real-world problems and developing the skills of self-direction, collaboration, and reflection, all of which prepare them to succeed in college, thrive in today's workplace, and lead a secure and fulfilled life. Through personal stories and hard-earned lessons from Summit's exceptional team of educators and diverse students, Tavenner shares the learning philosophies underlying the Summit model and offers a blueprint for any parent who wants to stop worrying about their children's future--and start helping them prepare for it. At a time when many students are struggling to regain educational and developmental ground lost to the disruptions of the pandemic, Prepared is more urgent and necessary than ever.

Closing the K–12 achievement gap is critical to the future welfare of African American individuals, families, and communities—and to the future of our nation as a whole. The Black-white academic achievement gap—the significant statistical difference in academic performance between African American students and their white peers—is the single greatest impediment to achieving racial equality and social justice in America. Black Educational Choice provides parents, citizens, educators, and policymakers the critical knowledge they need to leverage the national trend toward increasing and diversifying K–12 school choice beyond traditional neighborhood public schools. Parents can use this information to optimize the success of their own African American children, while policymakers and educators can apply these insights to help close the Black-white academic achievement gap throughout America. The book collects the interdisciplinary, multi-racial, and multi-ethnic perspectives of education experts to address the questions of millions of anxious African American families: "Would sending our children to a private school or a charter school significantly better their chances of closing the achievement gap and becoming successful individuals? And if so, what kinds of challenges would they likely experience in these alternative educational settings?"
