"The game takes place in the fantasy world of Eora, mainly inside the nation of Dyrwood. The infants in Dyrwood are plagued by a recent phenomenon in which they become "hollowborn" upon birth, meaning they are born with no soul. During the beginning of the game, the protagonist experiences an awakening of power due to a disastrous supernatural event, discovering they are a "Watcher": a person who can see souls and past lives. The objective of the game is to find out what caused their awakening and how to solve the hollowborn problem."--Wikipedia.

As games grow ever-more ubiquitous in our culture and communities, they have become popular staples in public library collections and are increasing in prominence in academic ones. Many librarians, especially those who are not themselves gamers or are only acquainted with a handful of games, are ill-prepared to successfully advise patrons who use games. This book provides the tools to help adult and youth services librarians to better understand the gaming landscape and better serve gamers in discovery of new games—whether they are new to gaming or seasoned players—through advisory services. This book maps all types of games—board, roleplaying, digital, and virtual reality—providing all the information needed to understand and appropriately recommend games to library users. Organized by game type, hundreds of descriptions offer not only bibliographic information (title, publication date, series, and format/platform), but genre classifications, target age ranges for players, notes on gameplay and user behavior type, and short descriptions of the game's basic premise and appeals.

An online criminal craves real-life danger, but her flawed instincts may cost her new crew everything. Rafael Santos didn't get the nickname 'Goldie Locks' for his shimmering blond curls. His hair is as black as his criminal heart. No, it's his Midas touch. His ability to earn-coupled with a love for theft and technology-has gained him the coveted Number Two position in the Covington Heights crew. The problem is...after a murder that sent their regular clients packing, even his numbers are down. Now, finding new sources of illegal income is his number one priority. Marigold Pfeifer is the fairy princess of online deceit. She can slip her computer viruses into a system at the blink of an eye and steal personal information in a twinkly flash. And that's exactly what she does when screen name 'GoldieLocks' slides into her instant messenger. What'd he expect? A gift card? But when the naïve hacker rides the train uptown to check out mysterious Covington Heights, she's approached by the leader of the crew and forced to think fast on her feet. A hate-filled rivalry sparks between her and Rafael-and with it a deviously sinful attraction. Will real-life criminals and the danger they breed be enough to wise up the goth-pixie with zero street smarts when she must navigate dark waters- or will her flawed instincts burn all she's worked for to the ground?
