It is recognized by leading universities and employers worldwide, and is an international passport to progression and success. Developed over 25 years ago, it is tried, tested and trusted by schools worldwide. This syllabus is designed for learners who are learning Mandarin Chinese as a foreign language. The aim is to develop an ability to use the language effectively for purposes of practical communication. The course is based on the linked language skills of listening, reading, speaking and writing, and these are built on as learners progress through their studies. Cambridge IGCSE Chinese aims to offer insights into the culture and civilization of countries where Mandarin Chinese is spoken, encouraging positive attitudes towards language learning and towards speakers of foreign languages.

Written to cover the IGCSE syllabus, Business Studies: IGCSE is divided into five sections, which are in turn divided into units that provide convenient and flexible areas of learning. Each unit has a brief introduction followed by a business-in-context section and questions designed to help students understand the implications of the topic. Each unit contains definitions of key terms and ends with a summary of the topic covered. This revised set of resources for Cambridge IGCSE, IGCSE (9-1) and O Level Business Studies syllabuses (0450, 0986, 7115) is thoroughly updated for first examinations from 2020. Slowly, silently, now the moon Walks the night in her silver shoon;
This way, and that,
she peers, and sees Silver fruit upon silver trees;
One spring evening, the fairies gather in the woods.
Two sleepy children join in the parade to a wonderful, dream-like fairy party.
Illustrated by bright new talent, Carolina Rabei, this Walter de la Mare poem is brought to life with shimmery, ethereal illustrations, making it the perfect book for bedtime. One of four seasonal Walter de la Mare picture books that form a set, each with complementing colour palates and illustrations by rising young star Carolina.
