Darke Academy: 4: Lost Spirits Hachette Children's

WARNING: This is not the actual book Looking for Alaska by John Green. Do not buy this reading Sidekick if you are looking for a full copy of this great book. Use this expert sidekick to dissect these themes in Looking for Alaska, while enjoying a detailed analysis of each chapter of the book. If that wasn't enough, we close with potential questions and responses to help you get the conversation started with co-workers, friends, or fellow book club members. This newly discovered gem from the past (2005) has become a must-read, thanks in no small part to the success of Green's 2012 masterpiece: The Fault in Our Stars. As many Green fans have already discovered, our sidekick is the ultimate go-to source for understanding the complexities of John Green's tales of teen angst and tragedy. Looking for Alaska tells the story of Miles Halter, a 16-year-old with a nondescript life who is seeking a "Great Perhaps." In his quest, he finds himself at the Culver Creek Boarding School, where his past life of boredom and safety takes a back seat to adventure and sexual experimentation. His trek to the other side of the tracks takes him only a few steps, as he meets Alaska Young just down the hall at school. She is sexy, funny, and everything else that makes teenage boys drool. She is also a self-destructive sort, headed toward the "After" portion of Looking for Alaska, where everything comes crashing down. As our sidekick details, the themes of life and death weave their way through the novel, drawing the characters closer together while preparing them for something that will rip them apart.

Emma is torn between her passion for Julian and her need to protect him from the consequences of a forbidden romantic partnership, a situation challenged by her relationship with Mark and his efforts to regain his Shadowhunter capabilities. The Inquisitors have been stopped, but the one who leads them remains at large. Tolan discovers a dangerous plot against the Academy--and all of Terndahl--the Inquisitors have planned for far longer than any have suspected. The power involved is unlike anything ever encountered by those within the Academy. Tolan isn't sure he's capable of understanding what has happened, but with his connection to the elementals, he might be the only one able. The key to what's happening is tied to something in Tolan's past. For him to stop the one who leads the Inquisitors, and to understand what they're after, requires him to know more about where he came from and why his parents left him in Ephra. Stopping the Inquisitors is only the beginning, not only for Tolan to save Terndahl, but to finally know himself.

Brynn of Haversey is a spirit whisperer--a person blessed with the ability to see and speak to the dead. In the country of Amerin, she's one of a select few with magical gifts known as whisperers. Every year, the Royal College accepts a small number of new students, all magically inclined, all whisperers. Competition is brutal and the classes, nearly impossible to pass for a half-breed angel with two left feet and a massive pair of black feathered wings. Oh, and especially if she brings her six ghostly boyfriends with her to the academy (including the recently deceased crown prince, a master thief hanged for his crimes, and a former student of the Royal College). What kind of spirit whisperer is Brynn of Haversey if she can't exorcise her own soulmates? But Brynn isn't attending the most prestigious academy in the world to become a better exorcist--she's searching for a way to bring her lovers back to life ...SPIRITED is a full-length (300+ page) reverse harem romance with a (slightly) clumsy but still kick-butt angel heroine and her six boyfriends who just happen to be ghosts. This book includes foul language, violence, and sexual situations.

Brynn of Haversey isn't just a spirit whisperer: she's a shadow whisperer, too, a person blessed (or some might say cursed) with both the powers of Heaven and Hell. Because of her rare double gift, the Queen of Amerin expects her to master the spell of resurrection and restore her men--namely the crown prince--to life, but Brynn is starting to suspect that the magic will forever be maddeningly out of reach. Life at the Royal College isn't quite what Brynn expected, especially not when she's being forced to live a double life. Student by day, the country's only hope at night. Without a demi-god heir, Amerin is doomed. With the fate of the entire country resting on the shoulders of the clumsy half-angel girl, Brynn will have to rely on her growing ghostly harem for help. The spirit of an academy professor. The prince of an enemy kingdom, and his aptly named brother, Trubble. The cousin of Brynn's longtime love. And then there's the prince himself, a man that nobody else can know is dead. Find the missing soul of a thief, enjoy the company of her only living boyfriend, Vex, and figure out a way to survive school and feuding gods. If Brynn can transform a fox into a human with the magic of a sneeze, surely she can do anything. HAUNTED is a reverse harem romance with a (slightly) clumsy but still kick-butt angel heroine and her seven boyfriends who just happen to be ghosts. This book includes foul language, violence, and sexual situations. This is book two in the series beginning with SPIRITED.

But there are dreams here, too. Sexy ones. And they're in the form of five Elemental Fae mentors. They're supposed to help me control my powers, but who's going to keep the elements from controlling me? Note: This is a medium burn reverse harem paranormal romance, and book one of the Elemental Fae Academy trilogy.

A musical, magical, resilient volume from the first Native American Poet Laureate of the United States. In these poems, the joys and struggles of the everyday are played against the grinding politics of being human. Beginning in a hotel room in the dark of a distant city, we travel through history and follow the memory of the Trail of Tears from the bend in the Tallapoosa River to a place near the Arkansas River. Stomp dance songs, blues, and jazz ballads echo throughout. Lost ancestors are recalled. Resilient songs are born, even as they grieve the loss of their country. Called a "magician and a master" (San Francisco Chronicle), Joy Harjo is at the top of her form in Conflict Resolution for Holy Beings. Finalist for the Griffin Poetry Prize
